MEXICO.

From the meagre reports received it is not easy to determine what is covered by the alleged treaty entered into by the government of the United States respecting Mexico. The acquisition of Lower California is affirmed, and this is combined with a guarantee of the French claim and a protectorate. This may mean no more than that the preliminaries of a bargain have been agreed upon, in which the United States is to have Lower California by agreeing to pay a sum of money equivalent to the French claim, and is to assume a nominal protectorate, so as to let France off with an appearance of dignity. A bargain of this sort, as things go, may be worth looking at. The Senate will doubtless scan it carefully before giving the treaty ratification.

But if it is really intended that this government, in addition to assuming to pay France as many millions for Lower California as the province is worth, shall further stipulate to exercise a protectorate over Mexico so efficient as to keep out European intermeddlers, and at the same time to ensure domestic tranquillity, the aspect of the bargain is totally changed, and the people will pretty unanimously admonish the government not to engage in the enterprise.

On the whole we incline to the opinion that the French are attempting the smart dodge of selling a province which they hold by a slight tenure, or none whatever, for a round price, and so get out of a bad scrape with some degree of credit saved.

FLAGRANT NULLIFICATION.

Gov. HUMPHREYS, in his late message to the Legislature of Mississippi, says:

> "The Civil Rights bill passed by Congress at its recent session conflicts directly with many of our State laws passed in pursuance to the amendment of the State Constitution, emancipating all the slaves in the State, and requiring the Legislature to guard them and the State from the evils that may arise from their sudden change, and has also been a fruitful source of disturbance. Immediately after your adjournment in December, 1865, I appointed Hon. Wm. Yerger, of Hinds county, and Hon. J. M. Ackers, of Monroe county, Commissioners to visit Washington city and lay these laws before the President, and to request him to indicate which of them the military authorities in the State would be allowed to nullify. The President, in his reply, gave them full assurance that none of them should be nullified except by the civil courts of the land."

The Constitution of the United States expressly declares that the laws of Congress are paramount in authority to the laws of any State, or even the constitution of any State. If, then, the Civil Rights law "conflicts," (as Gov. HUMPHREYS says,) with many of the State laws of Mississippi, those laws were rendered null and void, made inoperative, and in fact repealed, in virtue of that law of Congress. Yet, if we may believe Gov. HUMPHREYS, the President, instead of seeing, as his oath of office requires, that the laws—not of Mississippi, but of the United States—shall be faithfully executed, deliberately orders that the conflicting statutes of that State shall override and render inoperative one of them. It is impossible for Congress to overlook this information voluntarily furnished by the Governor of Mississippi; and if upon investigation, the facts shall be as he has stated them in his message, we see not how an impeachment and removal from office can be avoided.

Two months ago there were indications of an armed struggle between political parties in Missouri. Both sides were clearly prepared for any event. The decision of Gen. SHERMAN that he would stand by the authorities in the enforcement of the laws as they exist, has restrained passions and possibly averted calamities which were impending. In Maryland enactments exist designed to prevent rebels from voting. The Governor wants to ignore these laws, and set aside the agents appointed to carry them into effect. He has made an appeal to the President for military aid, in case of need, and, report says, has been promised all he may require. By this movement the President hopes to elect two members of Congress pledged to his Policy, and to set an example of his mode of dealing with all legal impediments laid in the way of rebels exercising the same degree of political power in the country as loyal men. It is difficult to foresee what this matter will amount to; but both parties in Maryland are highly excited and apparently resolved on strong measures. It is possible this matter may grow into serious importance, and that suddenly.

SOME of the Southern journals openly urge the President to declare himself Dictator. By way of encouragement they suggest that people as good and intelligent as the citizens of this country have submitted to like assumption with easy grace, and that military aid will not be wanting in case Mr. JOHNSON shall see fit to make the experiment. The scheme has not, however, as feasible a look as it had two months ago, and the chances at best were never flattering.

THE banner township in Indiana is Plumfield precinct, in Hendricks county. It gave the Republican ticket 621 votes, and not one Copperhead. In 1864, McClellan had one vote and Lincoln 575; but the lone Copperhead went crazy, and is now in the insane asylum. He could not stand so much light. The Republicans increased their vote since 1864 by forty-five. This is the banner Republican township in the United States.

THE Conservatives are boasting what valorous things they will do in New York on the 6th of November. They made as huge vaunts a month ago, of what they would do here in Pennsylvania. They promised to defeat Geary, and Moorhead, and Finney, and Covode, and Kelley, and Taylor, and Morrell. They did defeat not one of them. Their performance will be as small as in New York.

THE rumored retirement of Mr. STANTON from the war office may be taken as evidence that the President does not yet mean to abandon his Policy, and so bring himself into accord with Congress and the masses of loyal people.

MR. SEWARD has become a weak, tottering, garrulous old man. Bodily and mentally he is a wreck. If he only had discretion enough to seek the shade of private life, it would be better for his fame.

Philadelphia University of Medicine and Surgery.

The trustees and faculty of the above Medical College have issued "scholarships" at seventy-five dollars each, which entitles the holders to attend lectures until graduation, or as many sessions as he wishes.

This renders a medical education cheaper than ever proposed by any University or College in this country or Europe, possessing the same extensive facilities.

There are sixteen Professors and every branch of Medicine and Surgery is thoroughly taught.

The student holding a "scholarship" can enter the college at any time during the Lectures, attend as long as he wishes, and re-enter the Institution as frequently as desired.

Persons wishing to obtain scholarships can apply to L. Oldshue, M. D., Professor of Urino Pathology in the above-mentioned College. His office and residence is No. 132 Grant street, Pittsburgh Pa.

Wonderful Cure.

Last evening a very worthy and respected citizen of this city called upon us and requested that we announce a wonderful cure performed upon himself by Dr. Aborn, the distinguished physician and surgeon, now stopping at the Mechants' Hotel. He assured us that he had been very deaf, to such an extent as to prevent his hearing a watch tick if pressed upon his ears, and in a five minutes' operation his hearing was perfectly restored. The most surprising part of the case is in the fact that the gentleman has been deaf during the past twenty-six years, he being now nearly fifty years of age. Dr. Aborn has his rooms in the parlors of the Merchants' Hotel, where the name of the gentleman who called upon us may be obtained. LOCAL OF GAZETTE.

FROM EUROPE BY STEAMER.

The Spanish Seizure—Prosecution of Gov. Eyre—Change in the Portsmouth Fortifications—British North American Confederation—American Bishops to the Pope—Austrian and Hungarian Matters—The Insurrection in Candia.

HALIFAX, Oct. 22.—The steamship China, from Liverpool October 13th and Queenstown on the 14th, arrived to-day. The news brought by the China is unimportant.

It is stated that in the case of the British steamer Tornado, seized by Spain, the French Government has advised that of Madrid to admit their mistake in seizing the vessel, to indemnify the owners and crew, and make the most ample apologies.

The Jamaica Committee appeal to the public for subscriptions to the amount of ten thousand pounds sterling for the prosecution of Gov. Eyre. They had specially retained the services of Mr. Coleridge, Queen's counsel, for the prosecution.

It is stated that the engineers of the War Department had decided to alter the construction of the Portsmouth fortifications from a combination of granite and iron to one of entirely iron of the most massive character.

The delegates at present in England from the British North American colonies had been entertained at a banquet by the British North American Association. Most of the speakers were strongly in favor of the confederation scheme. Earl Carnavan, Secretary of the colonies, declined, however, to commit himself on the subject. He premised that the matter should have the full and respectful attention of the Government.

The Bourse was firm, closing at 68f at 9 o'clock. The weekly returns of the Bank of France show a decrease in cash of over twenty-two millions of francs.

The Italians had completely occupied Peschria, Mantua and Borg forts.

The Italian Senate had been convoked and was holding secret sessions for the trial of Admiral Persano.

It has been officially stated that the loss of the Italian troops at Palermo during the riots amounted to 388 killed and wounded.

A telegram from Rome dated Oct 11th, says: A dispatch dated Baltimore, Oct. 9th, has been received here from the council of seven Arch Bishops and four Bishops, in which they salute the Pope and express wishes for the preservation of the ancient rights of the Holy See.

AUSTRIA.—The Emperor had returned to Vienna from Ischae, and was to set out for a tour through Bohemia in a few days. Prior to his departure the Hungarian Diet was to be convened and the Imperial Patent issued, announcing that as soon as negotiations with the Diet are brought to a satisfactory conclusion, the Hungarian ministry will be formed.

The Prussian cabinet had addressed representations to Austria in reference to the arrest by the Austrian authorities, at Altfriedick, of eight hundred Hungarians, who formed a portion of the former Prusso Hungarian Legion. The Austrian reply by telegraph announced that the necessary steps had been taken for carrying out the guarantees contained in the peace treaty, and no impediment would be offered by the Austrian authorities to the return of the members of the Legion to their homes.

Accounts from Candia continue to indicate that the insurrection was losing its serious character, and the public mind was becoming appeased. It was said that the leaders of the Insurgents had sent a deputation to Lirith Pasha, offering to enter into negotiations for submission on condition that the conferences on the subject should take place in the presence of the Consuls of France, England and Prussia, and the condition had been accepted. Therefore, already thirty thousand Turkish troops had crossed the line, and further reinforcements were to be sent. A rising of the Christians of those districts was considered imminent.

The St. Louis Explosion—Verdict of the Coroner's Jury—Damage by the Tornado—A Radical Conference.

ST. LOUIS, October 22.—The coroner's jury sat long on the bodies of the victims of the explosion last week, and returned a verdict that the explosion was the result of the negligence and ignorance of the engineer.

The damage by the tornado yesterday is estimated at $160,000.

The Presbyterian Conference, sitting in this city, passed a series of very radical resolutions, condemning President Johnson and endorsing the action of Congress.

Verdict Rendered.

BELFAST, ME., Oct. 22.—In the action against certain parties for destroying the Bangor Democrat office in August, 1861, which has been on trial before the Supreme Court in this city, for a fortnight, the jury, this evening, after being out seven hours, returned a verdict of nine hundred and sixteen dollars against Jno. Tabor, of Oldstown, and Samuel A. Mann, of Bangor, and of not guilty as to the remaining defendants. The assessment of damages was to cover the property destroyed unnecessary for publishing the newspaper. The case goes up to the fall court upon exceptions.

Another Extradition Case.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—A Herald's Montreal special says: Another extradition case, involving nice points of law, has been developing in Montreal, in the case of John Paxten, extradited for forgery, and charged on his trial with uttering a forged document. It is argued that he can be held on the same charge under which his extradition was granted by the United States. In case of conviction an appeal is to be made to the United States authorities.

New Foreign Policy Rumored.

DEMANDS ON ENGLAND FOR PRIVATEER OUTRAGES.

Our Relations With Mexico.

NEW STATE OF AFFAIRS.

WITHDRAWAL OF MAXIMILIAN AND THE FRENCH.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—A special to the Tribune contains the following: There are important rumors in circulation to-day that I have traced to an authority which, if not official, justifies me in sending them to you. The President and Cabinet, instead of changing the policy of the administration in obedience to the rule of the people, as expressed in the October elections, are now intending to create a new and popular foreign policy to affect the November elections.

At the last Cabinet meeting it was resolved to demand payment at the hands of the British Government in full for all the outrages committed by the privateers which were fitted out in England. This is said to have been the decision of the Cabinet, and to carry out this decision instructions were sent out to Mr. Adams last Thursday. If England suggests the propriety of calling a commission, our Government will not acquiesce.

It is also stated on the same good authority that on Wednesday last President Johnson, General Grant and Secretary Seward held a meeting, and it was determined to recommend as a measure of the administration that we should pay the French claims in Mexico, and receive Mexican territory in exchange, probably in the neighborhood of Guyamas. Mr. Campbell will shortly depart for Mexico. The Juarez Government will be recognized and no other.

The Minister to Mexico arrived here to-day, having been telegraphed for by the President. He has been closeted with the President and Secretary Seward all evening. It is evident that the Mexican question will soon be definitely settled. Minister Campbell leaves here soon to carry into effect the new state of affairs. The holders of Mexican bonds are jubilent over the state of affairs.

The Herald says: "There are good reasons to suppose an earnest movement in regard to Mexican affairs will soon be made by this Government. Our Minister in Mexico, Col. Campbell, has been sent for by the President, and arrived to-night. Dr. Plum, of New York, will probably be appointed Secretary of Legation. The President is desirous of a prompt solution of the Mexican question, and it is apprehended will not be tardy in initiating vigorous measures. It is not unlikely that instead of the United States regulars being employed in the occupation of Mexico, if such an exigency should arise, volunteers will be called for from the several States, who shall be commanded by Regular United States officers of the higher grades, or by officers appointed by the State Governments, and the volunteers accepted by the Government pro rata from the several States. Probably not more than twenty thousand volunteers will be required, leaving the Regular army comparatively intact for other service. It is possible our Minister to the Mexican Republic may be averse to crossing the border except under the shield of General Grant, but that the President means work on Mexican matters very shortly, there is at this time every reasonable probability.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The Times' Washington correspondent says: The Mexican question at last draws to a complete and positive solution. I shall be disappointed if before this letter is printed, there is not at least a semi-official announcement that the immediate withdrawal of the French and Maximilian from Mexico, is a fixed fact. The basis of this solution has already been foreshadowed. It is briefly the assumption of a protectorate by this Government over Mexico, which shall guarantee the French claims, and in compensation therefor, the Mexican Government cedes the Peninsula of Lower California and other territory to the United States.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 22.—The War Department orders that field and general officers, may wear their brevet rank uniform. Quartermasters will furnish transportation to officers,—entirely to forage—when ordered from one post to another on duty, for horses not exceeding the legal allowance. Officers entitled to mileage, will be allowed actual transportation cost for authorized servants.

The President has appointed William B. Thornburg to be surveyor General for the State of Nevada; Joshua D. Geddings, Assistant United States Treasurer at Charleston, S. C., and Eli P. Norton, solicitor, to represent the United States before the Court of Claims.

Acting Master Hofly, commanding the U. S. steamer Newbern, reports to the Department from Key West on the 4th: When in latitude 29 deg. 38 sec. north, longitude 80 deg. 06 sec. west, he discovered a large piece of floating timber, and by vigilance discovered a raft containing five men. They proved to be the Captain, Second Mate, cook and two seaman of the British bark Ambrosine which foundered in a gale on October 1st. They were from Pensacola, Florida, bound to Queenstown, and when picked up were without food and clothing and nearly exhausted. The raft was small, the sea heavy, and it was with the greatest difficulty they were enabled to hold on until rescued. These men were the remainder of a crew of fifteen, ten of whom perished.

Rear Admiral Pearson, commanding the South Pacific Squadron, reports to the Navy Department from Catia, on the 27th ult., that affairs there are tranquil.

The Department has advices from Rear Admiral W. H. Bell, commanding the East India Squadron, dated Nagaski, Japan, July 25th, in which information is given of the arrival of the United States store ship supply at Macon on the 8th of July, with stores for the squadron. The supply was ninety-eight days on her passage, which is the shortest time made by any vessel from the United States to China this season.

TERRIBLE WIND STORM AT ST. LOUIS.

Great Damage to Life and Property.

ST. LOUIS, October 22.—The most terrific wind storm that ever visited this section of the country, swept over this city, at half past four o'clock yesterday afternoon, doing an ingredictable amount of damage from the South bearing a little eastward. It seemed to twist like a screw, and lasted from twelve to fifteen minutes. It was about a quarter of a mile wide when it first struck, but grew narrower as it proceeded North. Scores of buildings were unfroofed, and hundreds were more or less damaged. Trees and fences were uprooted in every quarter, shutters, sign-boards, timbers and all loose things, were carried through the air, almost like feathers. No lives are yet reported lost, but several persons were severely injured. The following are some of the most serious injuries sustained:

All the chimneys in the City Hospital were blown down, and the adjoining houses were completely wrecked. The unfinished brick stables of the People's Railroad Company, near Lafayette Park, were blown down, and the old stables demolished; two breweries on Lafayette avenue lost their chimneys and part of their roofs. The Church of Angels, in the course of construction on St. Angavine street, had the roof of the whole south and portions of all the other walls blown down. The pastor's house, near by, was also badly damaged. A new three-story warehouse on Sixth street, belonging to Mr. Koenig, was prostrated; only a portion of one wall was left standing. The roofs of the Barnum and Lindell hotels were somewhat damaged; also the Mercantile Library Hall. A large portion of the tin roof of Darbe's marble building, corner of Fifth and Olive streets, were rolled apart and blown into the street. The greatest fury of the storm seems to have been spent on the O'Fallan Polytechnical Institute.

In a very large unfinished building on the corner of Seventh and Chestnut, two immense chimneys were blown down, breaking a hole in the roof, into which the wind entered and tore up the tin roofing like paper. It carried large portions of it, weighing several hundred pounds, a distance of from two to five blocks. The three story brick house adjoining had the whole rear end forced in, killing the pastor of the church of the Immaculate Conception. Its occupants were badly hurt. Several other houses in the immediate vicinity were seriously damaged. Several of the steamboats were blown from their moorings and forced across the river. All the telegraph lines leading out of the city were prostrated, and the fire alarm telegraph was very badly cut up. But a portion of damage done in this city is yet known, and nothing has been heard from the country, where it is expected the damage has been very great. The rain storm was accompanied by wind, and a good deal of hail also fell. The storm of wind was heavy, and rapidly drifting clouds prevailed until past midnight, but this morning the weather is clear and quite cool.

THE EXCITEMENT INCREASING.

Expected Attack on the Radical Headquarters.

PROCLAMATION BY GOVERNOR SWANN.

DISTURBANCE AT A UNION MEETING.

ONE MAN KILLED.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 22.—The case of the Police Commissioners was taken up by the Governor this morning. The complainants were represented by Messrs. Schley and Latrobe; the Commissioners by Messrs. Stockbridge, Alexander and Sterling. The latter read a reply denying the jurisdiction of the Governor, but averring a readiness to answer before a court of competent jurisdiction. The Governor decided that he had jurisdiction. The counsel for the Commissioners then withdrew saying that their mission was at an end.

Police Commission:—We cannot recognize your right to try us. We cannot give up the authority and duty vested in us and imposed on us unless, upon the judgment of the Judicial tribunals of the state, we are required to do so.

The reply concludes by expressing the hope that the Governor will relieve the apprehensions of the citizens of Baltimore by refusing to entertain this novel jurisdiction, and declining to advance the objects of those who have appeased him, and who, they say, would rejoice to see you produce a conflict in Baltimore.

Messrs. Schley and Latrobe, for the petitioners, maintained the jurisdiction of the Governor, and evinced their readiness to argue the question. Gov. Swann said, that after mature reflection he was satisfied the law gave him the power and made it his duty to investigate and pass on charges of official misconduct against officers, and therefore he maintained that he had jurisdiction in this case. The counsel for the Commissioners then announced that their mission was at an end, and withdrew after consultation with the counsel for the petitioners. The Governor appointed Wednesday next to try the case, when witnesses will be summoned to appear.

LATER.—The case of the Police Commissioners has been postponed till Friday. General Canby, Commander of the Department, came here from Washington to-day and had an interview with the Mayor and Police Commissioners. It is understood that the object of the visit was to inform himself as to the condition of affairs in this city.

We have reports from Hagerstown of a serious affair there on Saturday evening during a political meeting held by the unconditional Union men. A disturbance occurred, and fire-arms were used, resulting in the killing of one man, a conservative, and seriously wounding of two other participants in the meeting. The man who was killed was named Charles Gall.

BALTIMORE, October 22.—There has been considerable excitement in the city to-day in reference to the case of the Police Commissioners upon the announcement of the fact that the Governor maintained his jurisdiction in the case, and his determination to investigate and try the charges of official misconduct. Some slight manifestations of excited feeling took place. One person was knocked down near the headquarters of the unconditional party. Nothing more serious than this slight affair has occurred, however, and there is, at present, no reason to expect that the public peace will be disturbed further.

LATEST.

BALTIMORE, October 22.—Great excitement still prevails, which is not lessened by General Canby's visit to the city to-day. There are rumors to-night, that the Ping Uglies, of Oldtown, are organizing for an attack on the Radical Headquarters, in West Baltimore street. The Radicals have made every preparation for a vigorous defense. They have stored an armory of revolvers and rifles in the building, and a very strong body of police, and two or three hundred armed Boys in Blue, remain within ear shot.

There is a belief among the supporters of the Police Commissioners that the Radicals of Pennsylvania are ready to march to their assistance. Forney's visit to the city yesterday has much to do with the impression. This is the threatened invasion which Gov. Swann alluded to in his remarks at Annapolis.

This morning a street fight occurred in West Baltimore on the announcement of the Governor's intention to go on with the case. One man, who cheered for Johnson, was knocked down. Five others joined in the melee, and some of them were severely handled. The timely arrest of all the parties prevented the fracas from spreading into a riot.

In some of the wards the old rowdy organizations which existed before the war are being revived, and calls are published in the papers for every Democrat to prepare for action. At midnight everything is quiet, and the excitement is calming down. The following proclamation has, to-night, been issued by Governor Swann:

STATE OF MARYLAND, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

WHEREAS, It has come to the knowledge of the Executive that military and other combinations are now forming in the city of Baltimore for the purpose of obstructing and resisting executive laws of this State,

And, whereas, there is reason to believe that similar combinations are attempted to be organized with the intention of invading the soil of the State of Maryland, to deprive her citizens of their just rights under the laws, and to control the people of the State by violence and intimation:

Now, therefore, I, Thomas Swann, Governor of the State of Maryland, do by this my proclamation solemnly warn the leaders of all such illegal and revolutionary combinations against the peace and dignity of the State, that in the case of riot and bloodshed growing out of these revolutionary proceedings, they will be held to the strictest accountability, and the power of the State will be exhausted to bring them to prompt and merited punishment.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State of Maryland, at the city of Annapolis, this twenty-second day of October, A. D. 1866.

By the Governor:
(Signed) THOMAS SWANN.
JOHN W. CARTER, Secretary of State.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—A Baltimore special says: Three thousand Boys in Blue and eight hundred policemen have reported to the Mayor, armed and ready for duty, but it is now thought that there will be no trouble. It is reported that all the members of Governor Swan's staff have resigned and sided with the Radicals.

Beecher in Favor of Fenton and Opposed to Hoffman—Universal Suffrage—Cholera on the Increase in Hudson City.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Henry Ward Beecher delivered a sermon at Plymouth church last night, of which the following is the burthen: Governor Fenton represents the idea of civil reformation; Mayor Hoffman represents the idea of continued misgovernment in the State and you may smooth it by what names you please here, it presents no reformation, while the popular party represented by Gov. Fenton in the State represents reformation in civil affairs. I have a right here on the broad ground of morality to appeal to the interests, to the reason and to the conscience of every thoughtful man on this subject, and I do. I have a right to appeal to every man of party and say if you have christianity and if you love morality, and would spread it, I demand in the name of Christ and morality that you give your vote and influence to that side that will most certainly establish justice and equality.

It was difficult to restrain the people from inflicting summary punishment upon the freedmen. They were committed to await due progress of law.

Railroad Developments—A Sensational Pamphlet.

NEW YORK, October 22.—Considerable agitation was caused in financial and political circles to-day by the announcement that Mr. James Parton, the well-known author, had published a treatise on the relations of railroad corporations to party politics. The pamphlet made its appearance this afternoon. It sets forth in considerable detail the working of several roads, chiefly, however, the organization and management of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway Company and its dependencies. It is alleged that within three years the chief officers have issued new capital, without a corresponding increase of assets, amounting to over nineteen millions of dollars. Also, that about three millions have been divided among the directors of the transaction; that the dividends paid have been borrowed at a loss of nearly thirty per cent. It is also asserted that the rates of transportation have been raised along the lines from fifty to fifty-eight per cent. on the score of earning a fair return for this fictitious capital. The article broadly intimates, also, that vast sums of these monies are spent for electioneering purposes, and among other things, to pay the expenses of McClellan in Europe.

The hearing of the cases of John R. Marsden, John Maxen, and Wm. McDermott, who were arrested about a year ago, charged with having appropriated a large quantity of Government material to their own use, has been set down for to-morrow in the United States District Court. The accused, at the time of their arrest, were all bosses in the Navy Yard.

Suicide in Reserve Township—Coroner's Inquest.

A shocking case of suicide occurred in Reserve township, late on Sunday night or at an early hour yesterday morning. The name of the unfortunate wretch is Bollos Slanter, and the circumstances surrounding the melancholy affair as near as we have been enabled to ascertain, are about these: Yesterday morning, Mr. Zimindinger, an old resident of Reserve township, went up into the hay loft of his stable for the purpose of throwing down some hay, when he discovered a man apparently asleep. He inquired what he was doing there, but receiving no answer, went up to him and took hold of him. He was horrified to find that the man was dead; having hanged himself with a rope, one end of which he had attached to a rafter. The deceased had provided himself with a stout bed cord, and in order to make it stronger had doubled it. He had also removed a portion of the hay so as to give more room, as the roof was very low, but even then he was compelled to draw up his legs to prevent his feet from touching the floor of the loft. The corpse presented a most shocking appearance, the face being black, the eyes distended, and the tongue protruding some distance, giving evidence of a terrible death. From the testimony adduced before the Coroner's jury it appeared that the deceased had been in this country but six weeks. He had been employed in the vicinity for several weeks, but for the last week has been out of employment. Two or three days since he visited a boy who had come from Germany with him, and handed him some papers, remarking that he intended either to cut his throat or hang himself. The boy endeavored to dissuade him from his rash purpose, and told him he would get him work. The deceased replied that he did not want work, and then left. Nothing further was thought about the matter until his dead body was found this morning. The deceased was apparently about forty years of age, and, as far as known, has no relatives in this country. He leaves one child in Germany. No cause is assigned for the rash deed.

The jury, after a thorough investigation, returned a verdict of death by suicide.

Gideon's Band Serenade.—Last evening at a late hour the GAZETTE was favored with a charming serenade, by the Gideon's Band, of Allegheny City. If we have been profuse in the use of adjectives in expressing our admiration for other bands which have treated us to similar compliments, we draw back and say that we have never heard more exquisite and soul-stirring strains than those last night. The complimentary card left has been placed in a conspicuous place in our sanctum, not only in memory of the Band, but as a specimen of artistic pen-work. Call again, gentlemen. We are passionately fond of good music.

Charged with Stealing.—Michael Gillen was arraigned before Alderman Taylor yesterday, charged with having feloniously entered the residence of J. B. Wharton, situated on Factory street, in the Fifth ward, and carried off a certain amount of bed clothing valued at thirty-seven dollars and eighty cents. After a lengthy hearing the accused was discharged, the evidence being insufficient to warrant the magistrate in holding him for trial.

Accident.—A young man, whose name we have been unable to ascertain, was severely injured yesterday in Moorhead's Rolling Mill, on the Monongahela River, by having his fingers caught between the rolls.

An Interesting Hog Case.

Nancy Wright resides in a domicil perched on the very summit of Boyd's Hill, in the Eighth ward. She is blessed with an affectionate heart capable of loving any and everything, but she has one weakness and that is an undue tenderness for members of the porcine tribe, or in other words, to use a feminine phrase "she doats" on hogs. A few months since, according to her own statement, she was presented with a lean emaciated "porker," by a certain George Duke, who, notwithstanding his lofty title, resides at the city poor farm, on the Monongahela river. Actuated by the noble ambition of seeing that which had been confided to her keeping, properly cared for and physically improved, she gathered carefully and frugally, the offal and fragmentary food that dropped from her hospitable board, and three times during the day did she feast her hogship with such food, as would cause the porcine epicure to rejoice with exceeding gladness. The physique of the animal improved daily under the fostering care of Mrs. Wright until the ribs which had stood out so prominently, when she was first brought to the kind lady was lost sight of altogether in a mass of oleogenous matter, vulgarly termed fat. The very acme of all her hopes were about to be reached—the object of her earnest solicitude was about to increase the animal population by at least half a dozen—when the covetous eye of a neighbor named James Melvin was attracted to the hog, and to the surprise and horror of Mrs. Wright he claimed the animal as his legal property, and expressed his determination of taking possession of it. With all the eloquence of her persuasive oratory did she appeal to the stoney heart of the new claimant, to allow her to retain possession of the hog, whose form by long association had become endeared to her, and whose familiar grunt was the sweetest music to her ear. The heart of the ruthless James was as adamant, into the hard cold depths of which her supplications penetrated not, and proceeding in the broad light of noonday to the premises of Mrs Wright he audaciously seized the hog and carried it off.

Determined on restitution, the bereaved lady hastened to the office of Alderman Strain, before whom she preferred a charge of larceny against Melvin, who was subsequently arrested and arraigned before the magistrate to answer the accusation. A hearing was had which resulted in the discharge of the accused, he having, in the opinion of the Alderman, proved a prior claim to the innocent cause of litigation. Feeling that justice had not been done her, Mrs. Wright proceeded to the office of Alderman Morrow, and instituted suit anew against him who had "robbed her of her prize." The second hearing came off last evening, when the office of the Alderman was crowded to suffocation by an eager crowd of spectators, the principles in the matter at issue, and a formidable array of the witnesses for either parties. The lady was represented by an able attorney, who, in the excitement incidental to the occasion proved conclusively "that he was not a reed to be shaken by the wind." The defense was conducted in an admirable manner by a gentleman who has gained quite a reputation as an expounder of legal technicalities and who strained every nerve in the cause of his client. The case for the prosecution was opened by calling an individual named John Hugnes to the witness stand, who swore by his index finger that he had been intimately acquainted with the animal in dispute for three months, both having been fed by the one hand—that of the prosecutrix. On being asked what he meant to convey by such a statement, he answered that he boarded with the lady.

While the hog was fed at the door the witness dined within the tenement, and thus the joke of the facetious John was explained.

The next witness was a Hibernian gentleman with a ruddy complexion and a rich brogue, who professed to be a connaisseur in hog flesh. He gave his name as Flynn and in answer to the question: "Did you ever raise a pig?" he replied, "yes over ten thousand, both in Ireland and America." "Do you know anything about this particular pig?" "Yes, it is Mrs. Wright's." "How do you know?" "By its intelligent look," was the answer, "I would know it among ten thousand."

The next witness, a dreary looking youth, testified that he knew the hog from the time it was a "sucker," and from the fact that he had been with it day and night for over three months, he was prepared to say that the hog belonged to Mr. Melvin.

After making this positive declaration the witness proceeded to inform those present what he had heard others say of the pig. But ere he had gone far Mrs. Wright's attorney saw that the repetition would injure the already weak case of his client, and he attempted to cut off the narrative by calling in stentorian accents to the youth not to repeat what he had heard. This irritated the young boy and pitching his voice to a key that would ensure its being heard, above the lawyer's, he continued his story. Then followed a scene of indescribable confusion, several persons volunteering to relate what they knew of the transaction, the disciples of Coke and Littleton wrangling with the audience, Mrs. Wright attempting to defend her own case by arguing legal points with the magistrate, while to cap the climax and add to the horrible din a deep sepulchral voice from without the office denounced Mrs. Wright's advocate as a d—d liar. In vain did the usually docile Alderman shout for order; in vain did he call upon the police to rid the apartment of disturbers—the babel continued unabated, the only distinct sound that reached our ears being something about a pig.

Peace was at length restored and the case brought to a conclusion by the Alderman declaring that Mrs. Wright was wrong.

A Young Man from the Country Sees the Elephant.

An accomplished youth, just arrived from the country with all the verdancy of the rural districts about him, giving his name as Jackson Loury, was relieved of fifty dollars and a gold watch on Saturday under the following circumstances: During the afternoon preceding the robbery Jackson, with that natural curiosity so proverbial among "green ones," proceeded to take a look at the two cities for the ostensible purpose, as he declares, of seeing the sights. While wandering about he met with Mrs. Emma Royal and [illegible] Later in the evening he was introduced to Jacob Royal, the husband of his female companion. Advertising and its Fruits.

Few persons plodding through life upon the path chalked out by the tottering footsteps of their ancestors, diverging neither to one side nor the other, have ever given the subject of advertising any thought or study. They may, day after day, turn over the musty leaves of their time-stained journals and reflect that their walk through life has only brought them nearer to the grave, and still leaves them at the self same spot where they entered into the business world. They are no higher upon the ladder of fortune. The grasp they got so early in life they still hold truly, but never had the confidence to let go in the hope of reaching the step above. They still look beneath them and find many struggling for mastery; above are men who, giant like, grappled the handbars and made difficulties disappear, while they steadily advance in prosperity. Luck and chance get the credit of others' success, and the fogy merchant closes his journal, and thanks a kind Providence that he has held his own. He probes not the secret of his contemporaries' good fortune, nor does he stop to examine the mountain of wealth which his neighbor has erected. In the business world he will find that printers' ink is the cement, [illegible] the bands which hold it together, and type the tell tales of commercial progress. He will have discovered the priceless value of advertising too late to derive its benefits. In latter days business has forced for itself new channels, discarding the dead waters of old canals and embracing facilities which a few years ago were not deemed by many to be possible. So also with the manner of conducting the trade which shifts from door to door seeking a resting place in the mercantile community. The merchant, if true to his own interests, cannot neglect advertising any more than other departments of his trade. He adopts every opportunity suggested of bringing his wares to the notice of the public, and looks upon the newspaper as the best guardian and promoter of the patronage which enriches him and lustres his property. There are evidences about us enough to show the merits of printer's ink. Liberal and extensive advertisers who have persevered in their efforts, discarding their doubts of how a shilling's worth of ink at odd times, for a systematic, steady outlay in the advertising direction have prospered and built businesses which are not only creditable and pride-provoking to themselves, but likewise an honor and glory to the community which sustains them. Here we may be pardoned for citing an instance. J. A. McClelland has long been recognized among our merchants as one thoroughly appreciating printers' ink. He has advertised judiciously, liberally. From a comparatively small beginning, to-day he finds himself the possessor of one of the largest, best stocked and widely known business bazaars of the west. From year to year his trade has increased, and it still increasing. True there were other material agencies besides advertising at work to accomplish this result. He keeps goods which are certain of proving even more than he warrants to the purchaser; his prices are so cheap as to amaze competition, and his system of doing business is most satisfactory and complete. He deals in dry goods of every style, pattern and material; boots, shoes and gaiters are his manufacture; hats, caps and an endless variety of notions to industry. Retail Customers are waited upon with as much good grace and accommodation by gentlemanly clerks, as are merchants who deal to the amount of thousands of dollars worth. Aside from all these inducements of the great auction bazaar of McClelland, 55 Fifth street, we claim for the public the credit of helping to build up the immense trade which at every hour throngs those spacious sales rooms. Even the mammoth sign board which stretches itself above the door comes under the head of an advertisement, more especially since the children of Mount Washington, some miles from the city, are taught their "A B C's" from it as they stand upon the cliff overlooking the Monongahela river and the smoky outlines of Pittsburgh.

Court of Quarter Sessions.

The Court met at ten o'clock yesterday morning, Judges Mellon and Brown on the bench.

After reading over the list of jurymen expected to be present, the following business was transacted:

Warner Powell, colored, was indicted for burglary. It was alleged that on the night of the 5th of June last he entered a vault attached to the eating house of Hannah Donaldson, in Lawrenceville, and stole therefrom two bucketsfull of whisky. The jury found a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars and costs and to undergo an imprisonment of two years in the Western Penitentiary.

E. Becker, of the Tenth ward, plead guilty on two charges of selling liquor without license. He was sentenced to pay a fine of one hundred dollars and costs in each case. William Moran, also of the Tenth ward, was sentenced to pay a fine of twenty dollars, having plead guilty to selling without license. G. P. Viertelier plead guilty to three indictments for a similar offence, and was sentenced to pay the costs and fines to the amount of three hundred dollars.

Samuel Reed, convicted of stealing a horse, and recommended to mercy, was sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars and the costs, and undergo an imprisonment of two years in the Penitentiary.

Abraham Griffith, convicted on a charge of assault and battery with intent to commit a rape, and recommended to mercy, was sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars, the costs, and to undergo an imprisonment of two years in the Penitentiary.

James Weyman, committed on an indictment for an attempt to commit burglary, was next called up for sentence. It will be remembered that Weyman was detected in the act of effecting an entrance into the dwelling of Jas. Marshall, Esq., in Allegheny. He was sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars, the costs of the prosecution, and to undergo an imprisonment of two years and six months in the Western Penitentiary.

The Court then took a recess until two o'clock in the afternoon.

The Court met according to adjournment, when several cases of illegal liquor selling were taken up and disposed of, after which the Court again adjourned to meet to-day at ten o'clock.

Miss Anna Dickinson.

The Young Men's Mercantile Library Association have opened their series of lectures most admirably, and under the most encouraging auspices.

Last evening the Academy of Music was filled to its utmost capacity, to hear that popular favorite, Miss Anna Dickinson. It had been announced that she would lecture on "Something to Do," on last evening; but she concluded to postpone that lecture until Thursday evening of this week, and give her auditors "The Rejected Stone," another new lecture, and in our opinion, the best we have ever heard her deliver. The Rejected Stone of which she spoke was that Human Equality so plainly recognized in the Declaration of Independence, yet so strangely set aside and rejected by those who reared our national temple, and for want of which that temple has been shaken and riven, and stands this day trembling, and is full of unseemly rents. Her appeals were [illegible] for whatever there is no symmetry, or beauty or stability can be hoped for until that stone finds its proper place. How so grand a conception could be treated by so gifted a speaker we must leave those of our readers who did not hear her to imagine. It went right home to both head and heart. It was a thrilling call to continued action, and to "let the fight go on" yet it was singularly free from bitterness.

Centenary Celebration.

On Sunday afternoon the Centenary Celebration of the Methodist Episcopal Sabbath Schools of Allegheny and Manchester took place in Rev. J. A. Swaney's Church, Beaver street, Allegheny City. The children composing the South Common, North Avenue, Bidwell street, Beaver Street and Manchester schools were present. The Church was filled to its utmost capacity, and the exercises were of the most interesting character.

The meeting was opened by calling Jonathan Gallaher, Esq., superintendent of the Manchester school, to preside, after which the children united in singing "The Good Sunday School." After prayer the congregation and children sang, "The Gospel Ship is Sailing."

Rev. Mr. Hollingshead, of the Manchester station, then delivered an able and instructive address upon the subject of this being the centenary year. After singing "Marching Along," the Rev. Mr. Lynch, of the South Common Church, addressed the children, with reference to the life and character of Asbury. The children then sang, "There's a Light in the Window," after which the children were addressed by Rev. I. C. Pershing, D. D., President of the Pittsburgh Female College. The children then sang "The Evergreen Shore" —the congregation joining. The exercises were then brought to a close by the children of the house of Industry singing, "Jesus Reigns." After the benediction was pronounced the schools and congregation separated to their homes.

Failed to Pay.—An humble follower of St. Crispin named John Krouse came into the office of Alderman Morrow yesterday and made oath against an individual named Fetters for the purpose of recovering the amount for a pair of boots from the latter on Pennsylvania Avenue, store of the latter on Pennsylvania avenue. It seems Fetters, who from present indications, is not overly troubled with a surplus amount of conscientious scruples, got a pair of boots from Krouse, promising to pay for them on a certain day. The appointed time fixed for the payment came, but with it came no funds. Information was lodged before the Alderman charging Fetters with false pretenses, [illegible] against him as stated. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the defaulter.

Personal.—The gentleman who purloined a silver card plate from a lady in Allegheny City on Saturday evening, will please return the same immediately to this office, and thereby save himself the consequences of a legal prosecution, as he is well known.

Committed.—A colored individual named Charles Ramsey was committed to jail yesterday by Mayor Morrison, of Allegheny city, for the larceny of a pair of boots from Henry Meyer, at Burger's Hotel, in the Fourth ward, Allegheny.

PRESIDENTIAL USURPATION.

The student of political history perceives that in all ages great perils to personal and public liberty have arisen from combining the legislative and executive function in one individual. It was to guard this point that the framers of our Constitution separated the law-making power entirely from the power of enforcing laws when made. Indeed, without the rigid enforcement of this distinction it is impossible for responsible government to exist.

The right to make the laws necessarily implies the right to have a Policy in conformity to which laws shall be framed. But there is no warrant in the Constitution for the President to devise and enforce a Policy. The Constitution expressly provides that all legislative powers shall be vested in Congress. This is exclusive. The idea of partnership in this important duty is not admissible. There is but one branch of the government charged with authority to make laws; and all other grants of power or enjoinments of duty must be interpreted in conformity with this fundamental stipulation.

The President is charged, "from time to time to give Congress information of the state of the Union, and to recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient." His duty in this particular is strictly limited. He is to convey information and to make recommendation in view of the facts he has to present. The President is the medium through which the government and people hold intercourse with foreign nations. The various Executive Departments all report to Congress and the people through the President. It, therefore, is made the duty of the President to gather up information, foreign and domestic, as may be of importance, and lay it, from time to time, before the law-making Department for their enlightenment. He is further charged to recommend such measures as he shall think necessary or expedient. If the army needs enlargement or diminution, or remodeling, if Indian titles can be extinguished advantageously, if the treasury requires replenishment, if additions to, or changes in the navy are needful, the President is expected to make suggestions. And this is well. But when he goes farther, develops a Policy, insists upon its adoption, and makes unscrupulous use of the patronage committed to his discretion in order to subsidize or overawe Congress, he entirely oversteps the limits of his prerogatives. Not only does he infringe on a co-ordinate branch of the government, but his infringement becomes in the highest degree dangerous to the public liberties. It is in this way the government by the people is overthrown, if at all.

Nor does the allowance of the Veto Power to the President militate, in any degree, against this view. This power cannot properly be construed as a participation in law-making, but must be regarded simply as a check to hasty or ill-considered legislation. The right of Congress to make the laws is absolute. Notwithstanding all objections which the President may urge, or all the hindrances he can put in the way, Congress is still at liberty to do as it pleases. Whatever it passes by a two-thirds vote is law in spite of all the President can do.

So far there is no ambiguity in the teachings of the Constitution. No warrant is furnished for a Presidential Policy. None exists. His having a Policy, which he endeavors to force Congress to accept, is an offence; not only against the Houses, but against the people.

ILLEGAL NATURALIZATIONS.

The Harrisburg Telegraph demands the impeachment of Judge FISHER, of York county, for knowingly granting certificates of naturalization contrary to law. The allegation against him is that he admitted to citizenship just before the State election, a number of men who only filed their application in August last, whereas the law requires that an interval of two years shall be put between the application and admission to the right of suffrage. Of the facts alleged we know nothing, and therefore do not propose to speak; but taking the facts to be as represented, we venture to suggest that the remedy proposed against the delinquent magistrate cannot be enforced. Of course, on a matter of this sort, we express an opinion with diffidence, and shall submit to the judgment of those whose special training properly fits them for dealing with problems of this description.

There is, and can be, no law of Pennsylvania regulating the naturalization of foreigners. By the Federal Constitution, the matter is handed over exclusively to the jurisdiction of Congress. By Act of April 14th, 1802, Congress enacted that aliens should be naturalized by the federal courts, and by the > "Supreme, superior, district or circuit court of some one of the States, or of the territorial districts of the United States."

In order to define more clearly what State and territorial courts might exercise this power, the act goes on to say—

> "Every court of record in any individual State, having common law jurisdiction, and a seal and clerk or prothonotary, shall be considered a district court within the meaning of this act."

The act farther provides that—

> "The clerk of said court shall record the proceedings."

It is under this law that Pennsylvania courts, in common with other State and territorial courts, receive application for citizenship, and grant admissions thereto. The judges and clerks, while engaged in this matter, sit not as State but as federal officers. Whatever Judge FISHER may have done—whatever any State judge may hereafter do—in admitting aliens prematurely to citizenship, no law of this commonwealth has been or will be infracted. None exists on this subject. How the Senate can manage to impeach a State judge who has violated no law of the State we do not see, and believe no one else does.

The Courts of Pennsylvania, it seems to us, when engaged in naturalization, sit not as State Courts, but, ex-officio, as United States Courts, sitting to administer federal laws, and solely by authorization from Congress. We do not see what else they can reasonably be accounted than federal courts, of a special sort.

And here it may be as well to refer to a provision of the State Constitution, which reads—

> "No member of Congress from this State, or any person holding or exercising any office or appointment of trust or profit under the United States, shall at the same time, hold or exercise any office in this State to which a salary is or fees or perquisites are by law annexed, and the Legislature may by law declare what laws are incompatible."

Judges and Clerks of Courts are pre-eminently officers in whom "trust" is reposed. State Judges, administering the naturalization laws of Congress, exact and take no fees, and hence the position, in this respect, is not one of "profit." But the Clerks and Prothonotaries of State Courts, serving under the naturalization laws of Congress, take the same fees, commonly, as like officers of Federal Courts. Hence, they make this position one of "profit" as well as "trust."

If this view is correct, it follows that all State Judges, Clerks or Prothonotaries, who serve the United States in these capacities, are liable to impeachment. They have no right to do what the Constitution forbids. It is worthy of consideration, moreover, whether they are not liable to indictment, and, upon conviction, to fine and imprisonment. A public spirited citizen, living in a backwoods neighborhood, who allows himself to be commissioned, at the same time, both Justice of the Peace and Postmaster, though the two offices may be rather an annoyance than a source of gain, is liable to indictment. Instances are not wanting in the State, in which men have been indicted and fined, even when it was clear that the two offices were held reluctantly, and solely for the accommodation of the vicinage.

This view is strengthened by the reflection that no Pennsylvania Judge, Clerk or Prothonotary can be proceeded against in any form, under the laws of the Commonwealth, for refusing to naturalize a man claiming that privilege. The work may be done or not done, as the courts please. If they act at all, it is in a capacity not known to the laws of the State, and by virtue of being made courts by national law, for this particular purpose.

And this explains why naturalization has, in the main, been conducted loosely. In some of the counties, for long successions of years, State Judges have not meddled with it at all. The Clerks or Prothonotaries have run the mill, and with an eye to seeing how much they could make out of it. The feeling has been that their position, in this regard, was anomalous and without due responsibility in any direction.

We do not make these suggestions because we are unfriendly to naturalization. On the whole subject of suffrage we lean to a liberality which is accused of ridiculism. But when any class of persons are charged with an important public function, it is proper their right to exercise it should be clear and unquestionable, and that they should act under such rules as would make their liability, in case of wrong doing, definite and tangible.

A DICTATORSHIP.

We remember to have read somewhere a warm eulogy on the alleged forbearance of WASHINGTON in refusing a Dictatorship, pressed upon him by the military chieftains who had served under his orders during the war of Independance. The whole representation is doubtless apocryphal. A Directorship never entered into the thoughts of the revolutionary leaders. Neither WASHINGTON, nor any other personage, in the early days of the republic, had the slightest chance of seizing upon the rights and liberties of the people. If any one had made the attempt the swift retribution of an indignant people would have crushed him speedily.

On the other side of the Atlantic earnest friends of popular government have experienced alarm in consequence of the threats thrown out by President JOHNSON against Congress, followed by intimations that another and rival body would be formed and recognized. It is not wonderful that the extraordinary language employed by the President on divers occasions should have created apprehension in Europe, where his personal character and the temper of the American people touching this particular matter, are not so well understood as they are here. It would be easy for President JOHNSON and his advisers to precipitate a bloody crisis, in which they would certainly be among the first victims; but his chances of making himself Dictator, even if such a notion is floating in his excited brain, are infinitesimally small.

But it ought not to escape notice that calm men, in Europe, accustomed to the nicities of language, and to scan commitments and events with historic accuracy, put substantially the same construction on the President's words which have generally been put on them by republicans here. Indeed, those words are susceptible of no other fair interpretation. There was no ambiguity in them. They were clear, definite, tangible. Hence, it was that when the Ledger published what purported to be inquiries on this subject addressed by the President to the Attorney General, but two constructions presented themselves to the minds of men in this country; one that the President, notwithstanding the popular verdict against him, as disclosed in the elections, had resolved to take the hazards of his cherished project, the other, that, enlightened by the elections, he had determined to back down, and meant to draw from the Attorney General such an opinion as would enable him to do so with an appearance of grace. The former was much the more prevalent construction; and it was so legitimate that none of the friends of the President, concerned with operations in gold in the markets of the great cities, thought for a moment of resisting the upward movement of coin. Only upon official denial of the statement did they apprehend that a canard had been played upon the public—if, indeed, it was a canard.

GERMAN UNIFICATION.

One of the most difficult tasks imposed by events on statesmen is to stop in mid-career towards a grand consummation through prudential considerations. With the end full in view, the temptation is strong to push forward, though the risks are many and formidable. Count BISMARK evinced the most admirable self-control in pausing when he did, taking time to consolidate what he had gained, and leaving the unfulfilled portion of his plans to the future, under the operation of established affinities.

Nor has his prudence been less conspicuous since he closed the war than in bringing it to a termination at the right moment. In the North German Confederacy universal and equal suffrage has been established, thus securing the powerful support of the Liberal Party to the monarchy. To be sure, the Conservative majority in the Upper House of Parliament resisted the innovation. They would have been false to their traditions and their aspirations had they done otherwise. But the influence of the Court, exerted by reason of the palpable necessity for cementing amicable relations with the body of the people, overcame all the obstacles thus raised.

These popular movements have not been without effect in the provinces included in the South Germany Confederacy. One of them, Baden, has already solicited the privilege of joining the Northern Confederacy. This privilege is withheld, because to grant it immediately would be likely to re-open the war and peril what has been achieved. But the incorporation of all the Germanic States into one power, under the leadership of Prussia, will be accomplished so soon as the development of events shall furnish a fitting opportunity. Whether this unification shall come in peace or in war admits, at present, of conjecture; but that come it will, seems to be perfectly clear. All ordinary and recondite forces seem to conspire to produce that result.

—The papers of Europe and the gossips of Constantinople are much exercised, just now, about the movements of the United States in the East. As though we had not territory enough in America, without seizing Turkey! It was certain a few weeks ago that we were trying to buy Crete. Now we have bought Milo for $10,000,000; and every one says we have made a very bad bargain. The United States Government knows well enough that it can have one of the best Islands in the Archipelago for nothing, if it cares to ask for it. So I cannot be wrong in assuring you that it has not thrown away ten millions on Milo.

I believe that our Government has very great doubt as to the propriety of taking an island out here for a naval station, even as a gift; but Russia and Greece would hail our advent here with unmixed joy. Russia is undoubtedly intriguing to bring about such an arrangement, and if we take an island in the Archipelago it will be because Russia has persuaded our Government to take this step.

—New-Jersey is to-day one of the surest and firmest Republican States in the Union, though several are far a head of her in the magnitude of their majorities. She will very surely elect three, probably four, possibly all five, Republicans as her Representatives in the next House. She will in due time fill the place of Mr. Wright in the U. S. Senate with a Republican. She will poll, on the 6th prox., a larger Republican vote and majority than she did last year. In short, she has taken her place among the thoroughly Free States, and will keep it.—N. Y. Tribune.

—The Irish papers report the death of Mr. John B. Dillon, who was well known in 1848 as a leading member of the "Young Ireland Party." After the failure of the attempt made by that party to procure a revolution in Ireland, and free it from British rule, Mr. Dillon came to America, and resided for a considerable time in New York city. His death creates a vacancy in one of the parliamentary seats in Tipperary.

CHOLERA! CHOLERA!! CHOLERA!!!

With the almost certain advent of cholera with the coming of the spring, no thoughtful person will be unprepared for it. Secure what experience has demonstrated to be the most certain antidote—that which has cured once will cure again—and never purchase a new and untried article, when an old and reliable article can be had.

When the cholera visited us on two former occasions, it was found by experience that

Was the best and superseded all others, therefore it stands to reason that, if you would have an article that you can depend on, you should purchase it to the exclusion of all others. Sold only in Pittsburgh, at

PITTSBURGH, MAY, 16th, 1866.

MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH:

GENTLEMEN:—During a visit to the West last fall, I contracted chills and fever, which brought me to my bed, and finally terminated in typhoid fever, and confined me to my room for several months, during which time I was physically so prostrated that I almost despaired of ever recovering my health, having almost entirely lost my appetite for days, not being able to eat a morsel, added to which I was distressed with a reeling sensation in my head, and passed many sleepless nights—all from debility caused by my prostrate condition, brought about by fever. At this stage of my condition a friend recommended me to use your celebrated Stomach Bitters, but being morally opposed to the use of stimulants in any form, I at first declined, but afterward yielded my prejudices, and after taking the medicine for several weeks, my appetite returned, and with it I am rapidly regaining my former strength and vigor. My sleep (from the loss of which I have suffered much) has never been better than it is now, and the reeling sensation (before alluded to) has entirely left me. My bowels, which were much constipated and irregular, are now quite natural, and, in fact, I am glad to say that I feel myself a new man, and tender you this testimonial of my appreciation of your valuable preparation in order that others may avail themselves of its virtues, which prejudice kept me from enjoying for so long a period. I may also add that my physician, after seeing beneficial effect of your Bitters on me, recommended that I use them regularly.

Yours, very respectfully,
E. BOURNE,
No. 45 Market Street.

J. B. CAPEWELL,
WIND-GUARD AND AIR-HEATER
FOR COAL OIL LAMPS.
PATENTED OCTOBER 25TH, 1865.

The merits of this Invention consist in its protection to lamp chimneys, which are continually breaking while being used with the ordinary lamps. No sudden transition from heat to cold can crack or break these chimneys; the lamps can be carried with safety and without apprehension, in the most violent wind,—reflecting a steady light under all circumstances; and the fact that one-third less of oil is consumed, renders this a most valuable acquisition to house-keepers. Samples sent to any part of the U. S. on receipt of 25 cents, post, paid.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

E. S. ABORN, M. D.,
OCULAR
AND
AND
Physician for Diseases of the Respiratory Organs,
HAS TAKEN ROOMS AT THE Merchants' Hotel,
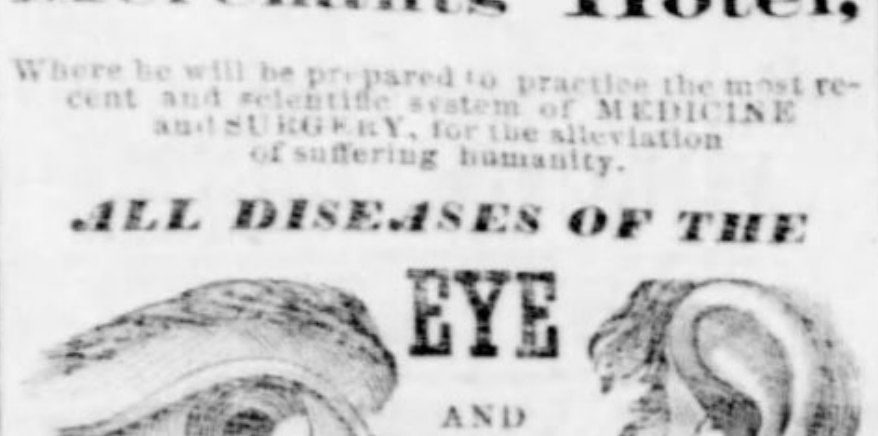
Where he will be prepared to practice the most recent and scientific system of MEDICINE and SURGERY, for the alleviation of suffering humanity.
ALL DISEASES OF THE



AND THE ORGANS OF THE CHEST
TREATED WITH THE UTMOST SUCCESS.
Embracing all Acute and Chronic Maladies of the Eye, Blindness, Cross Eye, Falling of the Eye-lid, Catarrh, etc., Deafness, Roaring and Buzzing in the Ears, Discharge from the Ears, etc., Diseases of the Nose, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Consumption and Affections of the Heart and Stomach.

HEALTH IS THE HIGHEST BLESSING!

Man will give all he has for relief from disability and pain. Yet thousands suffer for a long series of years, and linger out a useless life, who, with proper treatment, might be restored to health and contribute to the health and happiness of others. But the fault is not with the patient, for he tries persistently the various Doctors and

QUACK NOSTRUMS

For relief, and finds it not. The reason is, the general physician has but little time to inform himself in regard to the improvements in medicine and surgery. Many physicians know but little of the causes of disease, and are consequently ignorant of cure, with but a limited opportunity for extensive study, and restricted in their observations to a small circle of country, they cannot expect to become expert in all diseases. A scientific and practical means of cure must result from long study and extensive research in respect to special diseases. Of this fact medical men of this country and all the countries of Europe are aware; and the ablest practitioners are giving their best energies to special diseases. They have mastered the laws of life and health—marked the pathological changes in disease—and found safe and effectual remedies. To long and patient study of the diseases of the

EYE, EAR,
Throat, Lungs and Chest,

And his discoveries of new remedies and new applications of old ones, DR. ALBORN owes his unparalleled success in curing diseases that have long baffled all previous treatment. And his dexterous and delicate surgical operations on the Eye, Ear, &c.,

Are the fruits of his exact knowledge of Anatomy and an extensive practice of his art as surgeon of the Eye and Ear Infirmary of San Francisco, Cal., and as Physician and Surgeon-in-Chief of the Nashville Medical and Surgical Institute. The most despairing Invalids will be encouraged to hope for cure on visiting his rooms and witnessing the numerous testimonials and evidence of his skill.

CATARRH.

Catarrh of the head is the commonest of diseases. In its early stage it is scarcely noticed. The patient complains a little of cold in the head, but heeds not the warning; or, if he does, he is likely to amuse himself with the thousand and one slops and snuffs recommended by a regiment of self-styled doctors or grandames. And so the disease runs on, till it results in Chronic Coryza, Gravedo, or general Ozœna. Then comes the annoying symptoms of lassitude, painful limbs, aching back, tightness across the forehead, corrupt discharges, profuse lachrymation, hoarseness, sore throat, furred tongue, nausea, loss of appetite, and general debility. If the disease is not soon arrested the throat becomes inflamed by the putrid discharges, the bronchi irritated, and the lungs poisoned by the inhalation of air passing over the diseased parts, about twenty thousand times a day, and pregnant with the disgusting effluvia. A cough soon ensues, which, aggravated by the filthy head, accumulations gravitating downwards, continues until the lungs give way, and fatal Consumption closes the scene. The slightest cold in the head, therefore, should receive prompt attention, for the cure at this stage is easy; but if allowed to become chronic catarrh, it requires the best skill and a long time to cure it. Indeed patients laboring under this terrible malady have looked in vain for help. Such should know that Dr. ABORN has discovered a treatment sure to give speedy relief, and to result finally in a complete cure.

OTORRHŒA.

This disease is distinguished by a purulent or mucopurulent discharge from the ear, which is only a symptom of the real disease. Many suffer through life with this evil under the impression that it cannot be cured, or because some wonderful prodigy has promulgated the idea that to arrest the discharge is to pen up the poison in the system to break out in some more dangerous part. The stupidity of such persons is to be pitied. What, keep open a sluiceway for running off corrupt humors, or cleanse the fountain that the filthy stream may dry up! A thimbleful of common sense guided by a competent knowledge of the nature and causes of this disease, will eradicate it in a short time, not only without injury but with a remarkable improvement of the general health. The causes of this affection are inflammation from teething or from exanthematous diseases, from polypi, from granulations of the membrana tympani, scrofula, &c. It is easy to see that if the cause is a polypus, it can easily be removed and with as little danger as the extirpation of a wart on the hand. The same is true if granulations of the tympanum are the cause; and if the inflammation is the result of a scrofulous condition or a malarious poison, eliminate the poison or change the cachexia and the cause ceases. Thus a safe cure is effected. The different varieties and causes of this troublesome complaint may be learned at DR. ABORN'S rooms, and a sure and safe remedy obtained.

Hope for Consumptives!

Colds produce Catarrh. Catarrh produces Laryngitis, Tracheatis, Bronchitis and Consumption. These diseases have long baffled the ordinary modes of treatment, because remedies have not been brought to bear on the parts affected. But by Dr. ABORN'S New Inhalator, every part of the breathing apparatus can at once be reached by medicated inhalation, and the most astonishing results follow its application. Diseases of the throat and lungs are speedily cured, while the inhalation is entirely agreeable and pleasant.

References.

We, the undersigned citizens of Scranton, having witnessed the skill of DR. ABORN'S surgical operations, and the wonderful cures of cases of long standing and generally deemed hopeless by patients and physicians, are happy to lend our names for the encouragement of the afflicted, that they may not despair even in the most desperate cases:

TESTIMONIALS.

Of the many testimonials in our possession we select the following. Others from persons of character and high social position, who may be referred to, and can be seen by calling at the Merchant's Hotel:

As an Act of Justice.

I regard it as an act of simple justice to say that Dr. E. S. Aborn has been practicing as a physician and surgeon in Scranton for six weeks past, during which he has successfully treated a number of difficult cases thought to be incurable, and further, that I consider him to be a skillful physician, and one every way entitled to confidence.
I. RONEY,
Supt. and Principal of High School.
SCRANTON, Oct. 1, 1866.

To the Suffering.

I have been suffering with chronic sore eyes for fifteen months. My attention was called to Dr. Aborn's advertisements in the papers of the day. I called upon him, and have been under his treatment a few days, and I have found great relief; indeed, I feel nearly well, and would adjure all who are suffering with disease of the eye to call on him, believing they will find relief.
HON. ASA FAULKNER,
Member of the General Assembly.
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
NASHVILLE, June 17th, 1866.

A Wonderful Cure.

Read the following sworn affidavit regarding the cure of a case of deafness of twenty-two years standing, by Dr. Aborn:

This is to certify that I have been totally deaf in my left ear for twenty-two years, and that Dr. Aborn restored the hearing in five minutes time, the first time I have been able to hear out of the left ear for twenty-two years. As I consider this a remarkable cure, I have voluntarily made this statement.
JOHN S. RUPLE.
Sworn to and subscribed this 28th day of August, 1866, before me,
B. JAY, Alderman, Scranton, Pa.

To the Afflicted!

Dr. E. S. Aborn, the eminent physician and surgeon, formerly of the city of San Francisco, California, and more recently of the Nashville Medical and Surgical Institute, whose wonderful success has astounded the world in the treatment of Deafness, Blindness, Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitas, and all chest diseases, has arrived in our city. The press of Nashville and San Francisco teems with the most flattering notices of Dr. Aborn's skill, and the many testimonials he bears from men of high social positions, place him above the suspicion of quackery, from which our people have so long suffered, and point to him as a ministering angel to those who are afflicted.—Memphis Appeal, Dec. 1865.

TO THE PUBLIC.—I cheerfully and voluntarily make known the fact that I had been deaf for nine years, and that Dr. Aborn restored my hearing perfectly by two operations. I bid the Doctor God speed in his work of mercy.
P. O'HORA.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON FIRST PAGE.)

The Market Street Sewer.

From Dr. T. J. Gallaher's able address on Sewers, we extract the following:

In this connection I wish to make a remark in reference to the sewer proposed to be constructed on Market street of this city. An ordinance has passed both Councils authorizing the construction of this sewer, to extend from the old sewer on Liberty, along Market street to the Diamond. The first street opening or drop is to be placed on Market street, near the eastern face of the market buildings. Into this sewer it is contemplated opening water closets from some of the mercantile houses on Market street. When we recollect the narrowness of the street and the high houses by which it is lined, it is not difficult to see that good ventilation in this part cannot be obtained. The impure sewer gases which would come up this drop, could not be carried away by the currents of air, but instead would pass around our Diamond, fill our market house, and in fact pollute the entire air of our Diamond space. When we further recollect that our fresh meats and succulent fruits and vegetables are exposed here for sale and that our people; old and young, the delicate as well as the strong, congregate here in thousands almost daily to obtain their supplies of food, it can clearly be perceived that we run a risk of purchasing articles of food in a state of incipient putrefaction, always injurious to health; and that those visiting there must necessarily inhale an atmosphere impregnated with the most poisonous gases. The legitimate results of inhaling this polluted air would be an increase of sickness and mortality in the city. One probably would be struck down with a sudden ailment, without knowing whence the blow came, whilst another would be affected with typhoid fever or some form of bowel affection. The amount of sickness and death in our city is enough already, God knows, without making this pestiferous addition to the causes which produce them. We should rather try to avert calamities than court them. I would also say cholera can be spread through sewer emanations. A slight contamination of the Diamond air with cholera poison through the agency of a sewer would soon cause lamentations and mourning throughout the city.

I have laid this subject before the Board of Health, who have appointed a Committee of its members to inquire into the matter, and from the well known ability and zeal of that body, I have no doubt but that they will exert their power, as guardians of the public health, to prevent the accomplishment of an object fraught with such alarming results.

Discharged from Durance—A Boquet of Beauty.

From the number of gay and festive young men that were to be seen lingering about the office of the county jail yesterday afternoon one would suppose that something extraordinary was on the tapis. There were earnest confabs held in little groups and yearning glances cast at the iron-riveted door of the prison which was finally thrown open by the courteous deputy jailor Smith and eight young ladies came forth robed in gaudy habiliments, resembling much as they walked together the portrait Rogers gives of the beauteous brides of Venice on their way to St. Marcs. Quite an exciting scene took place on their arrival without the walls, the gentlemen before alluded to rushing forward and vieing with each other in the warmth of their welcome to those just liberated from the disagreeable confines of prison life. The names of the fair ones are Caroline Strickland, a quiet, demure looking damsel; Emma Clark, a bright eyed blonde, with a weakness for "celestials;" Kate Smith, a tall dignified creature in black; Fannie De Witt, a short fat girl, rather pretty; Nellie Gillian, of ponnerous build; Alice Marshall, inclined to be pretty; Annie Smith, very flashy, and last though not least, Emma Stanley, pretty but not beautiful.

On inquiry we learned the feminines mentioned had been arrested as witnesses to testify against a certain Fanny Splane, who is charged with keeping a bawdy house in Miltenberger's alley. The accused, although under bail for her appearance at Court, has left the city, and hence the prosecution had to be stayed for the present and the witnesses liberated.

Discharged.

William G. Carlin was discharged from the county jail yesterday on an order from Judge Sterrett. Carlin had been committed by Justice Lea, on a charge of fraud, preferred against him by Andrew M'Quincity. It appears the latter was engaged to build a barn for Carlin, which he did, he boarding at Carlin's house while the structure was in course of erection. When the building was finished M'Quincity still continued to partake of the hospitality of his employer until he was invited by the lady of the house to seek other quarters. Before quitting the premises where he had toiled he demanded compensation for his labor, but was somewhat astonished on being told that his boarding bill would more than cover his demand. He brought suit against Carlin for his wages, and had him incarcerated in the county prison until yesterday, when the question came up before the court, and resulted as stated.

Had a Hearing.

Edmund Coyle, the old man charged with having outraged the person of a little girl at Meaner's Hotel, corner of Penn street and Cecils alley, on Saturday night, had a hearing yesterday before Alderman Strain, which resulted in his being committed to jail in default of $5,000, to await trial. At the examination he admitted having perpetrated the foul act, but stated in extenuation for his conduct, that he was so much intoxicated as not to be able to fully understand what he was doing. The name of the little girl is Elizabeth Buttenbaker, and that of her father William I. Buttenbaker. He formerly resided in Decatur, Illinois.

United States District Court.

Court opened at eleven o'clock yesterday morning, Hon. Wilson McCandless on the bench.

The only case tried was that of the United States vs. William P. Alcorn, impleaded with Andrew W. Cox and James Griffin. The jury found a verdict for the United States in the sum of $3,303, 21 including interest.

Court adjourned until ten o'clock this morning, when the case of Thomas King, alias Shotwell, and Wm. Perkins, the Oakland counterfeiters, will be taken up.

Plymouth Church.—Sunday evening last at the Academy of Music, we had the pleasure of listening to a very feeling and eloquent discourse from the pastor, Rev. Moore. The theme was, "The harvest is past, and the summer is ended, and we are not saved." We have not space to give an extended notice of the reverend gentleman's remarks. We have seldom, if ever, been so deeply impressed by pulpit oratory. The subject was one of rare appropriateness, and was handled by the gentleman in his usual able and impressive style, and we think he has reason to feel proud at the result of his labors in the field he has chosen.

Wholesome for Farmers.—Dr. T. J. Gallaher says, in concluding an interesting address on sewers, published in the Chronicle yesterday, that "if the night soil that is now lost to vegetation by being thrown into the river could be deodorized and rendered fit for fertilizing purposes, as is done in some parts of Europe, and especially in China, where it is collected, treated with sulphate of lime and other chemicals, made into cakes and sold weekly to the farmer, it would be a great saving to the agricultural wealth of the State, and an abatement of a nuisance that is now so prolific of disease." No cakes, thank you.

Malicious Mischief.—Margaret Whitney appeared before Alderman Lynch yesterday and instituted proceedings against Mary Ann Barman for malicious mischief. The offense alleged to have been committed consisted in the defendant breaking a porcelain flower vase belonging to the prosecutrix, in order to avenge himself upon Margaret for a supposed wrong done her. The accused gave bail in the sum of $300 for her appearance at Court.

Personal.—Mr. Isaac Rahn, of the firm of Greenwald & Kahn, extensive and well-known dealers in cattle, has just reached home after an absence of several months in his native land—Prussia.

Pennies have become a nuisance in commercial circles, and we hear of large amounts being disposed of at a discount. But a short time ago nickels commanded a premium of ten and fifteen per centum.

Decrease in Travel.—There is a noticeable falling off of travel upon the roads centering in this city. The presence of the cholera, both east and west, is probably the cause of the decrease.

The markets are well supplied with all the seasonable fruits and vegetables, but the high tariff of prices imposed upon purchasers remains unchanged.

The Streets were never in a better sanitary condition than now, although in some quarters there is still much room for improvement.

The Gazette.—Parties can have the Gazette delivered at their doors in the cities and boroughs at fifteen cents per week.

The Cholera appears to have entirely abated, at least no new cases have fallen under our notice.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article. jy11:d&w

The Empress of Mexico.

PROCLAMATION OF THE KING OF HANOVER.

American Sloops of War for Sale.

CHOLERA SPREADING IN ENGLAND.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The Paris Opinione Nationale, of the 9th, says: Two days ago we had received very sad news of the mental state of the Empress of Mexico, but although the source from which we received it was trustworthy, we were unwilling to credit it. At present silence is no longer permissable. At first her state of mind was attributed to simply nervous excitement, caused by anxiety and disappointment, but accounts more and more frequent leave no doubt as to the terrible malady, and give no hope of cure.

The Count de Flandre has been summoned to Rome, where he is now witnessing this lugubrious and dramatic episode of an enterprise which has produced nothing but disasters.

The Brussels Rho de Parliament, of the 9th, says: News received here from Rome state that the mental crisis has greatly subsided. Her Majesty has been enabled to undertake the journey to Miramar, accompanied by the Count de Flandre.

A London dispatch of the 11th to the Herald says: The King of Hanover, in another proclamation to his late subjects, absolves them from allegiance to himself, with the reservation that the oaths of homage again become obligatory from the moment that King George the Fifth, or one of his legitimate successors, should reassume the exercise of government in the kingdom.

The Mexican Legation in Paris had received and published the following telegram from the Emperor Maximilian:

CHAPULTEPEC, September 27, 1866.—You will inform our Legation of the excellent spirit which prevails among all classes in Mexico. the ministry is definitely constituted. The best understandings exist with our allies. The Apalico Railroad is completed.

The Paris correspondent of the London Post, writing on the 8th instant, says: The American Government, it is said, has announced that the two sloops of war that are now at Kiel, one of which is the moniter Miantonomah, are for sale. A committee, composed of the Naval Prussian Administration, is reported to have gone to Kiel for the purpose of examining these vessels.

Though every possible precaution has been taken to prevent the spread of the cholera in England, the epidemic seems to be making a good headway in the manufacturing and agricultural districts between Liverpool and Manchester. The true type of Asiatic cholera has appeared in Newcastle, Gates Head, North Shields and Sunderland. The returns of the cholera at Marseilles continue to exhibit an average mortality of about three deaths in two days.

The Herald's Paris correspondent says: The question of the representation of the United States at this Court was widely canvassed in political circles, but the writer intimates that General Dix will be very acceptable to all parties as the American Minister.

What the French radicals term the Scandenavia question, an ultimate alliance or fusion of Sweden, Denmark and Norway, is looming up. The Opinione Nationale in its treatment of the subject, shows that it is likely to form a serious point of rivalry and antagonism between Russia and France in the Baltic.

THE SOUTH AMERICAN WAR.

A Three Days' Battle.

ALLIED IRON-CLAD BLOWN UP.

Brazil Satisfied by the United States.

NEW YORK, October 22.—The Herald's Rio Janeiro correspondence of date September 25th, announces important movements of the allied army in its advance into Paraguay. On the 1st of September the allied fleet, moving up the Parna river to co-operate with the army in its attack on Fort Curipaiti, an outpost of Fort Hamilton, came upon a masked battery, with which the fleet became engaged. The iron-clad Rio de Janeiro, which was in advance, was disabled by a sixty-eight pound shot. The fleet drew off to wait for morning. On the 2d the battle was resumed, and during the day the Rio de Janeiro was blown into fragments by a torpedo. All the crew perished, either by explosion or at the hands of the sharpshooters of the enemy.

On the 3d of September the army moved forward and made an assault on the fort, carrying it at the point of the bayonet. Up to the latest dates from the army, September 8th, no further advance had been made.

The Emperor of Brazil closed the session of the Assembly on September 18th. In his speech he informed the members that the United States of America has given to Brazil the most complete satisfaction for the violent capture in the port of Bahia, of the privateer Florida, by the war steamer Wachusett.

It is entirely different from the Southern Ohio Coal; contains but little sulphur, forges and cokes well, and for making steam cannot be excelled. An entrance has been run in the hill about 300 feet, track finished to river, together with the necessary fixtures for mining and delivering coal afloat. On said tract is first-class double Portable Circular Saw Mill together with a Portable Grist Mill, all in good running order, and plenty of the very best oak, ash and poplar timber. FINANCE AND TRADE.

MONDAY, October 22, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as reported by Robinson, McClean & Co., were as follows: Gold, 145⅝; 1881's, 113⅝; 5-20's, old, 114⅝; do new, 110⅝; 10-40s, 100; 7-30's, 1st series, 106⅝; do 2d and 3d, 106. Michigan Southern, R. R., 89⅝; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 91⅝; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 109¾; Erie R. R., 82⅝; Union Telegraph Company, 53¾; Chicago & Rock Island, 108; Chicago & North Western, 53¾; do preferred, 75¾.

Our local stock market continues very quiet, the transactions being very much restricted. There is some little inquiry for Bank shares but buyers and sellers are apart and, consequently, we have no transactions to report. Tradesmen's is wanted at 110—110½ asked; People's 111 bid and 115 asked; M. & M., 64 bid and 65 asked. Commerce 107 bid.

Oil shares very dull and weak, which is owing to some extent to the stagnation in the oil market. Sales of Federal to-day at 10 cts. Columbia is held at 17, with about 16 bid. Some Marine offering, but no sales reported. Insurance stocks very dull, and it is only now and again that an operation is reported. There is considerable inquiry for Valley Railroad stock, and but little offering.

—In answer to an inquiry as to the method of procedure in converting United States Seven Thirty per cent notes, February and August interest, first series, due on 15th August next, into United States Five Twenties of 1865, July and January interest, we state that it can be effected at the Treasury office in this city, free of commission, delay or risk for sending the notes to the Department at Washington. But holders are requested to bear in mind that their notes must be endorsed 'payable to the Secretary of the Treasury for conversion," in order to identify ownership, whether the notes have been previously filled in with a name and endorsed or not. Attention to this preliminary will save trouble and delay in making the exchange. The difference in the interested accumulated is promptly admitted at the same time.

—Says the Philadelphia Ledger: With the advance of the July 5-20s, the August 7-30s must continue to advance also—the latter being convertible into the former. The prices now ruling for the more favored class of Government loans are the highest they have ever been. The old short loans of 1867-'68 and 1871-'74 are held at relatively higher rates for currency than the Treasury is willing to pay for them in gold. The Treasury now holds about ninety-three millions in gold, against which the gold notes outstanding amount to $13,000,000. The scarcity of the 5-20s of 1862 is said to result from a disposition among operators to hold them back, in anticipation that the proceeds of the coupons sent from abroad (amounting probably to $17,000,00 in gold) will be chiefly invested in the same class of bonds. This may not be when it is known that the other 5-20s are equally valuable.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, October 22, 1866.

There is really but little that is new to be said about the produce markets. The receipts of Flour and Grain are on the increase, and Wheat, notwithstanding it has still further advanced in Chicago, is rather dull here, with a supply somewhat in excess of the demand. Some holders are endeavoring to establish an advance in Flour, but so far, it has not been general, and the demand is only moderate.

ASHES—Soda Ash is firm and fairly active but unchanged at 6 for common, and 6½ for refined. Pearls dull, but held pretty firmly at 15.

APPLES—Coming in a little more freely, and as the supply is somewhat in excess of the demand, the market is weaker, though, as yet, without quotable change—$2,50 to $3 per bbl, for good to prime.

GRAIN—Wheat is coming in pretty freely, and while the demand is light, holders are firm at $2,60 to $2,65 for No. 1 Spring—sale of 1 car at $2,62. Barley is quoted at $1,10 to $1,15 for No. 2 Sprnig, and $1,20 for No. 1. Sale of 1000 bushels Oats, in lots, on wharf, at 52; small sales from store at 54 to 55. No movement in Rye. Sale of 1 car Ear Corn at 95.

FLOUR—Continues rather dull, though the market is steady and prices are very well sustained—$12,00 to $12,50 for Spring Wheat, and $13,00 to $13,50 for Winter Wheat brands. Sales of Rye Flour at $6,50 for old and $7,50 for new. Buckwheat Flour is selling at $6,25 to $6,50 per cwt.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet but unchanged. We quote at 17c for Shoulders; 18c for Ribbed Sides; and 25c for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is dull with small sales of prime kettle rendered at 17½ to 18. Mess Pork unchanged.

BUTTER—Continues dull and weak, with a supply considerably in excess of the demand, and prime to choice Roll is selling at 30 to 33.

CHEESE—Is quiet and unchanged—Western Reserve is selling at 17; Hamburg at 18; and Goshen at 20 to 22.

EGGS—Steady, with regular sales of fresh packed at 30.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in demand and sells readily at $3. Timothy Seed is in good supply and very dull at same figure. Clover Seed is quoted at $7½@8.

CRANBERRIES—Steady, with regular sales at $15per bbl. for common, and $20 for cultivated.

DRIED FRUIT—Peaches selling at 18 for quarters; 20 for mixed, and 23 for halves. Apples very dull—quoted nominally at 12 for prime.

SWEET POTATOES—Dull but unchanged at $4,25 to $4,50—mostly at $4½.

LEAD—Pig Lead is selling at 11½.

HAY—Quoted at $20 to $25.

SALT—Selling in store at $2,90@3.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, October 22, 1866

CRUDE—There is no improvement to note in the demand for Crude, and the market continues dull and weak, with a drooping tendency. We can report sales in lots of some nine hundred barrels at 12½ to 13, bbls returned, the outside figure for low gravities, and quotations may be fairly given at 12½ to 13, bbls returned, and 17½ to 18, bbls included, and for the present, these may be regarded as the extremes of the market. The demand is very light, there being but very little inquiry, either for home use or shipment, and as the prevailing belief seems to be that the market has not yet "touched bottom," buyers—and they are very few in numbers—seem disposed to hold off until matters become more settled.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil continues very dull and weak, and prices have still further declined, owing to unfavorable "cable" reports from Europe. To-day the best offers for Philadelphia delivery were 37½ to 38, and it is said that later in the day, there were no buyers, even at these figures. On the cars here, quotations, in the absence of sales, may be given at 31½ to 32—though, holders generally, are asking 32½ to 33. The exports thus far this year have been very heavy, reaching fifty millions gallons, in the aggregate, against about thirty millions during the entire year of 1865, and it is this fact that causes operators to feel apprehensive about the future prospects of the trade.

ARRIVALS—The receipts continue very light—not a single arrival since Saturday, except a small lot from "Smith's Ferry."

Tide-Water Receipts.

The quantity of flour, wheat, corn and barley left at tidewater during the second week in October, in the years 1865 and 1866, was as follows:

	Flour.	Wheat.	Corn.	Barley.
1865...........	49,600	230,100	1,047,500	677,000
1866...........	14,600	249,100	533,700	548,700
	Dec. 37,000.	In. 84,000	Dec 113,800	Dec. 128,300

The aggregate quantity of the same articles left at tidewater from the commencement of navigation to the 14th of October, inclusive during the years 1865 and 1866, was as follows:

	Flour.	Wheat.	Corn.	Barley.
1865....	568,600	6,175,300	12,318,700	1,7[illegible],700
1866....	145,700	2,742,300	21,0[illegible]0,700	1,085,000
	Dec. 422,900	Dec. 3,433,100	In. 8,727,000	Dec. 640,700

By reducing the wheat to flour, the quantity of the latter left at tidewater this year, compared with the corresponding period last year, shows a deficiency equal to 1,109,520 bbls. of flour.

Oswego Market.

OSWEGO, Oct. 22.—Flour partially 25c better; sales of 2,000 barrels at $11,75@12,00 for No. 1 Spring, $13,25@13,50 for Red Winter, $14,50 for White, and $15@15,25 for Double Extra. Wheat firm but quiet; sales of 7,500 bush No. 2 Milwaukee Club at $2,20. Corn firm; sales of 8,000 bush No. 1 Illinois, to arrive, at $1,00, and 16,000 do, part to receive on private terms. Barley opened firm, with sales 5,000 bush Bay Quinte at $1,23, and 5,000 do Up Lake at $1,00 in bond, but closed nominally higher after the receipt of the noon report. Rye in good demand, but scarce; sales of 2,000 bush State at $1,21, 9,000 do Canada, to arrive, at $1,22, and afloat, $1,20, and 16,000 bush to arrive on private terms.

Chicago Lumber Market.

CHICAGO, October 20.—The market was steady and values were well sustained. There is considerable complaining at the length of time consumed in having vessels unloaded at the railroad docks, and it is as a reason that the railroad companies do not employ hands enough. Sales to-day include: 120 m ⅜ strips, balance mixed, at $19,50; 800 m Vilas & Co. sawed shingles at $4,00; 75 m rafted ⅜ strips, at $16, 70 coarse mixed rafted at 15,50, 80 m mill run ⅜ strips balance boards, at $20; 120 m at $17; 80 m lath at $4,25.

Cincinnati Market.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 22.—Flour firm and in good demand, at $10,30@11. Whisky firm and unchanged. Mess Pork held at $33. Lard quiet, at 15@15¼. Gold 146.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Stock and Money Market.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The Money market remains easy at 4@5 per cent. on call, with the greater part of the transactions at the lower rate. The supply is abundant and more than ample to meet the present demand for speculative purposes. Prime Discounts are 5@6 per cent. The Gold market closed at 146⅜. Cash gold has been lent at 1-3 per cent. to flat. The Government Securities were quiet and steady towards the close at our quotations below: Registered of '81, 113@113¼; Coupons of '81, 113⅝@113¾; Five-twenties, registered, of '62, 105⅝@106⅛; Five-twenty Coupons of '62, 114@114¼; Five-twenty Coupons of 64, 110⅝@110⅞; Five-twenty Coupons of '65, 110⅝@110⅞; Ten-forties, registered, 99¾@100; Ten-forty Coupons, 99⅞@100.

The stock market was buoyant at the last open board, and generally higher, with a good demand for stocks. The Northwestern shares, however, were not quite up to the highest point of the day after the session. The market was strong, with an upward movement on Rock Island. A new bull party seems to have taken hold of this stock. The miscellaneous shares were generally up from the lowest points of the morning. The following were the closing prices at 4:30 this afternoon: Ohio and Mississippi Certificates, 33⅛@33¼; Canton, 53¾@54; Western Union Telegraph, 52⅛@52¼; New York Central, 121⅛@121⅜; Erie, 82¾@83⅛; Reading, 116⅛@116⅜; Michigan Southern, 91@91¼; Illinois Central; 126¾@127; Pittsburgh, 92@92¼; Toledo, 118¼@118⅜; Rock Island Pacific, 109½.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The bank statement shows an increase in loans of $2,692,577; increase in specie, $1,090,485; increase in circulation, $238,331; decrease in deposits, $1,775,044; decrease in legal tenders, $4,554,953.

The Post's money article says: The loan market is easy, and there is an abundant supply of idle capital soliciting investment at 3@5 per cent on call and 5@6 per cent. on discount.

The stock market is feverish, and Governments rather pressed for sale as a fractional decline. Railroad Shares are irregular. Mining Shares are less active. Bank stocks flat. Railroad Bonds firm, without much activity. After the board the market was heavy in consequence of the reported unfavorable movement. Subsequently there was a recovery, the market closing steady. New York Central is quoted at 112⅛; Erie, 83⅛; Hudson River, 127; Reading 116⅜; Michigan Southern, 90⅜; Illinois Central, 125¼; Pittsburgh, 91⅝; Northwestern, 54¼; Northwestern preferred, 78⅜; Toledo, 118⅜; Rock Island, 106½; Ohio and Mississippi Certificates, 33¼.

The Commercial's money article says: Stocks opened dull in sympathy with the aspect of the bank statements, with the exception of New York Central, Reading and Rock Island. Nearly every stock on the list was ½@1 per cent. lower, and North Western common, at present the leading speculative road, fell off ½@2 per cent. After the call the sober second thought saw less to fear in the condition of the banks than was at first supposed, and prices rallied. Governments are less active and rather weak. Old 5-20s fell off ¼ under a cessation of the demand from foreign houses, closing at 114⅜ at the Board. The other 5-20s were ⅛ lower in sympathy. 7-30s followed the movement and the first series were ¼ lower, and the second ⅛. 10-40s alone are firmer and rose ⅛, selling at par. Foreign Exchange opens firm for Wednesday's steamer, and for prime bankers' sixty days' sterling 109¾ is asked, and for francs 517½. Long day gold continues weak with but a slight speculative movement. The large increase in the gold deposits in the banks shown by this morning's bank statement had the effect of depressing the market. Loans are made flat to 1-32 per cent. per diem. The imports of specie from foreign ports during the last week was $12,753.

Stocks strong; Fort Wayne, 107⅞; Milwaukee and St. Paul, 62⅛; do preferred, 75⅜; North Western, 55⅛; Michigan Southern, 90⅜; Reading, 11¾; Hudson, 128; Erie, 83⅛; New York Central, 121⅛; Western Union Telegraph, 51⅛; Sixes of 1881 Coupons, 113⅝; Five-Twenty Coupons of 1864, 110⅝; Ten-Forty Coupons, 100; Seven-Thirties 2d, 105⅞; do 3d, 105⅛; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 91⅛; Hannibal and St. Joseph, 46.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point, with scant three feet in the channel by the marks last evening. The weather yesterday was clear and cool—we had quite a storm of rain and wind between four and six o'clock yesterday morning.

The Nora had not arrived when we left the landing, but she was momentarily expected. Her manifest will be found elsewhere. The Grey Eagle got in from Parkersburgh on Sunday, and is now laid up alongside of the Bayard. The Delaware has taken the place of the latter boat, and left yesterday on her first trip in the Pittsburgh and Parkersburg trade.

The New State got in yesterday, and will probably load in turn for Cincinnati. The Julia No. 2, from Portsmouth, was due last night, and will probably be found in port this morning.

The Rob Roy received a considerable amount of freight for Cincinnati yesterday, and she looked in the afternoon as if she had about all she could take out on the present stage of water.

The Minnie, Capt. Shaw, is filling up steadily for St. Louis, as is also the America, Capt. T. H. Golding, for New Orleans. The Kate Robinson is next in turn for St. Louis after the Minnie, as she has just been overhauled and repaired, she is in excellent condition for business.

The Leni Leoti is due here from Parkersburg this morning, and will return again at noon.

The R. C. Gray and Wananita left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Friday, and the Quickstep, Sherman and Camelia were advertised to follow on Saturday. Capts. Dan. W. and W. H. Marratta arrived in Cincinnati by rail on Friday last, and we perceive that Capt. D. S. James has taken command of the Bertha in place of Capt. Piersel. We clip the following from the Cincinnati Enquirer, of Saturday:

We are glad to announce to its many friends that Mr. John C. Enyart is out again after a seven week's spell of sickness. Mr. Thomas Richardson, who was accused of killing a man at Memphis last summer, has been honorably acquitted at that port. Capt. Robert Porter left for Pittsburgh last evening. Mr. Alex. Havelin has taken charge of the office of the steamer Darling.

The Sherman, Camelia and Quickstep left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Saturday. We are a little apprehensive that none of these boats will be able to reach here until there is more water.

JEFFERSONVILLE, IND., October 20—7 P. M.—EDS COM.—There is five feet six inches in the pass over the falls, and falling fast. List of boats from Pittsburgh in port to-day: Neville, Ella' Star, Hawk, Hyena, Warner, Hercules, Lake Erie, Coal Valley. Fifty boats loaded with coal passed through the canal in two days, bound south, making eight hundred thousand bushels arrived by towboats in three days. Part of the coal stops here.

The Louisville Democrat, of Saturday says: The Tom Reese came in with a tow of coal from Pittsburgh yesterday and returned for more. The Bengal Tiger left for below with 120,000 bushels of coal. The Lake Erie No. 3 is due from New Orleans to day with an empty tow of barges. The Warner is repairing at New Albany.
